

University Admit Eligibility Predictor

PROBLEM STATEMENT:

Mr.Abdul is a 25 years old man. He wants to join in a college of his own choices. Abdul wants to know the better recommendation for university for joining .

- He has faced huge losses for a long time.
- This problem is usually faced by most students.
- Mr. Abdul needs to know the result immediately.

Who does the problem affect?	Persons who will search colleges
What are the boundaries of the problem?	People who choose universities and facing Issues of colleges.
What is the issue?	In educational aspects, if the students wants to choose his own choice of college they have to collect the full details about the university. Generally, the students should have to get marks and percentages.
When does the issue occur?	During the development of all universities for choosing colleges.

Where does the issue occur?	The issue occurs in university areas, particularly in famous colleges.
Why is it important that we fix the problem?	It is required for the growth of better quality of good studies. It is important to students to get valuable colleges.
What solution to solve this issue?	An automated system is introduced to identify different colleges on universities .
What methodology used to solve the issue?	Deep learning techniques are used to identify the colleges and suggest the precautions that can be taken forthose universities.